FHA Officers And Mothers Attend Banquet

Officers and Mothers of Appomattox Senior Future Homemakers of America are, left to right with each officer behind her mother, Darlene Forrest and Mrs. Lloyd Forrest, Debbie Morrell and Mrs. D. E. Morrell, Nancy Winston and Mrs. Robert Winston, Carla Varner and Mrs. Herman Varner, Gay Honeycutt and Mrs. Robert Honeycutt, Grace Ranson and Mrs. Jim Ranson, Kathy O'Brien and Mrs. Tommy O'Brien, Kay Stratton and Mrs. Jimmy Stratton, and Pam Chenault and Mrs. William Chenault.

The picture above was taken at the Annual Mother-Daughter Banquet given by members of the Appomattox Senior Chapter Future Homemakers of America in honor of their mothers. The banquet was held on Thursday, April 4th, in the high school cafeteria. Kay Stratton, chapter president, presided and welcomed each member, mother and guest. A response was given by her mother, Mrs. James D. Stratton, who thanked the members for having the banquet.

Pam Chenault introduced invited guests and Karen Marshall announced the winner of the outstanding FHA member, Pam Chenault. Carla Varner and Darlene Forrest recognized the Welfare Committee as being the outstanding committee for 1973-74. Grace Ranson then gave the Honorary Membership Awards to Mrs. Beck Hudson, Mr. R. B. Carter, and Mr. Dennis Torrence for their outstanding help to the FHA. Gay Honeycutt presented degree awards to the recipients. Nancy Winston introduced the entertainer for the evening, Miss Tessy Smith, a senior at Appomattox County High School, who played the guitar and sang a number of selections. A fashion show was presented by the FHA girls who modeled clothes they had recently made.

Named Honorary FHA Members

Three honorary memberships were awarded by the Appomattox Senior Chapter, Future Homemakers of America, at their annual banquet held on Thursday, April 4, 1974, in the cafeteria at Appomattox County High School.

The awards were given on recognition of outstanding interest in and continuous service to the Future Homemakers of America and the program of home economics education.

Receiving the honorary memberships were Mrs. Beck Hudson, center above, New Editor and a photographer for the Times-Virginian, who has helped to publicize the activities of the chapter for several years; Mr. Richard B. Carter, left above, a former agriculture teacher at ACHS and presently serving as Director of Vocational Education for Appomattox County; and Mr. Dennis W. Torrence, right above, a teacher in the Agriculture Department at ACHS, who has worked with the FHA chapter in various projects and activities.

Recreation Professionals Meet Virginia Congressional Delegaton

Nine members of Virginia's Congressional delegation met today with members of the Virginia Park and Recreation Society during a luncheon in the Capitol Building in Washington, D. C. The recreation professionals are in the Washington area to attend the Society's annual conference being held at the Ramada Inn in Rosslyn, Va.

Organized by Bill Garman, director of parks in Chesapeake, Va., the luncheon offered participants an opportunity to meet each other and discuss legislative activities concerning the park and recreation field. Joining the 23 VPRS delegates were two staff members of the National Recreation and Park Association Southern executive secretary of American Recreation Society, and John Cino, director of the tion's Division of Programs.

Fidelity Withdraws As Purchaser of DMC

LYNCHBURG - In an announcement on April 4th, Fidelity American Bankshares, Inc., a Virginia-based bank holding company, said that it has advised the trustees and receivers of the multi-state Diversified Mountaineer Corporation that its management and Board of Directors has determined to withdraw as a potential purchaser. Fidelity American had previously expressed on February 2, 1974 an interest in acquiring all the assets and guaranteeing payment of all liabilities of the wholly-owned industrial loan subsidiaries and the two insurance subsidiaries of DMC.

It is understood that further announcement of this development will come from the DMC trustee in Charleston, W. Va.

St. Luke

The families of the late Mrs. Beatrice Canada Mack are saying "thank you" to all for the kindness of food, flowers, cards and visits at the sad hour of bereavement and extend gratefulness to Rev. J. E. McLaughlin for conducting a wonderful eulogy. Also to Mr. Tim Lawing for taking charge of the music. May many blessings continue to be with you; Mr. William Mack and daughters, Elizabeth and Alice and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Canada and others.

The regular preaching services were well attended at the St. Luke Baptist Church Sunday, April 7. Rev. J. E. McLaughlin was in charge and gave a wonderful Palm Sunday message and also carried out the Holy Communion service. Many visitors and friends were present. Mr. George Mitchell became a member of St. Luke also on Sunday.

The Cornerstone Sunday School Union was a great success at its recent meeting. After this meeting all schools had reported scholarship funds, averaging $50 per school and one school $100.00. The program was enjoyed. Promise Land Church School is the next in order for the coming meeting.

On the third Sunday in April there will be a talent program by the Senior and Junior Ushers of the St. Luke Church. All are invited to come.

Junior Chapter FHA Observes National FHA Week

ON APRIL 2nd, THE JUNIOR FHA HELD "Be Nice To Teachers Day." In the picture shown above Robin Tomlin is presenting Mrs. V. P. Elliott, home economics teacher, with some baked goods. Each girl picked a teacher and brought him or her a cake, pie, cookie, etc.

SHOWN ABOVE, THE FHA OFFICERS are ready to pile into the car to visit the Oakville Kindergarten.

During FHA Week, the theme was "Reaching Out to the Young and Old," was used by the Junior Chapter. Through the kindergarten project they hoped that each girl learned something about helping young children and that they gained patience and understanding. Reaching out to help the old was taken on as individual projects and each member was to go out and spend some time with an elderly person. A paper was filled out concerning the visit and was turned in to the teacher.

Other activities the Junior Chapter participated in were the Federation Rally at Brookville High School and sending clothing to the Goodwill Industry. At the Federation Meeting, the club participated in a skit on "Identity."

Oakville

Those visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Lola Waits of Monroe, Mrs. Curtis B. Moore, Jr. and son, Richard, of Lynchburg, Mrs. R. A. Lucado, Mrs. Molly Rogers and daughter, Vicki.

Fisheries Advisory Committee Gains Members

Dr. John Hosner, head of the Department of Forestry and Wildlife at VPI, and Dr. Allan Hoffman, Chairman of the advisory committee on Fisheries for VPI, have announced the appointment of two laymen to serve on the committee this year. The new appointees are Dr. Arthur Martin, a Danville, Va. physician and president of the Danville Bass Masters Club which is a subsidiary of the national B.A.S.S. organization, and Jerry Shuder from Waynesboro, Virginia. Mr. Shuder, an Engineer, is president of the Shenandoah Valley Chapter of Trout Unlimited and a member of the state T. U. Committee.

Commenting on the appointment, Dr. Hoffman said, "I am pleased to see these two outstanding representatives of the lay fishing public join the committee. Although they have both worked informally with Tech and the Game Commission on past projects, I am certain that they will bring fresh insight into the needs, concerns and desires of the fishing public." The advisory committee is next scheduled to meet on April 24 and 25, 1974, at VPI.
